Dragi prijatelji stare glasbe in festivala Seviq Brežice, danes je lep dan, tudi pomemben: kultura kot državni praznik.

Tudi mi jo soustvarjamo. Da je bil Seviq Brežice ponovno omenjen tudi na zadnji seji Odbora za kulturo v Državnem zboru, je za nas močna spodbuda. Včeraj smo prejeli čestitko Kathrin Deventer, generalne sekretarke Zveze evropskih festivalov, da je Seviq Brežice tudi v novem obdobju 2019-2020 nosilec znaka EFFE Label.

Od 1997, ko smo festival preselili v Brežice, beležimo navdušujoče podatke: v Sloveniji smo v 53 občinah, na 107 historičnih in 20 drugih lokacijah izvedli 738 dogodkov, od tega 608 koncertov, 1 gledališko predstavo, 11 filmskih uprizoritev, 12 promocijskih prireditev, 7 razstav, 13 izobraževalnih sklopov, 11 rezidenc umetnikov ter 6 simpozijev in konferenc. Zunaj Slovenije pa v 4 regijah Hrvaške in Italije na 15 historičnih lokacijah 33 koncertov kot del programa Seviq Brežice. Naše programe je oblikovalo 1.808 umetnikov 52 različnih državljanstev, marsikateri tudi v več letih z inovativnimi in vznemirljivimi programi. Še posebej smo ponosni na visoko zastopanost slovenskih umetnikov, ki so po številu (206) takoj za Francozi (208) in Italijani (208). Sodelovali smo v vrsti mednarodnih projektov (Študentski festival, Evromreža, Debut Junger Sänger, PurPur, eeemerging) in prispevali v obnovo prostorov slovenske kulturne dediščine.

Za praznik Vam posredujem misel evropskega komisarja za kulturo Tiborja Navracsicsa: Festivali so nosilci raznolikosti kulturnih izrazov, integracije in socialne kohezije. Pomagajo ohraniti skupnost, prenašajo vrednote, osvežujejo tradicijo in delujejo kot vektorji za neformalno izobraževanje. S tem festivali pomagajo graditi trajnostno prihodnost v raznoliki družbi.

Z željo, da kulture ne praznujemo le 8. februarja, ampak skozi vse leto, in da se srečujemo na neponovljivih koncertih Seviq Brežice, Vas vse prav lepo pozdravljam.

Dear friends of early music and Seviq Brežice festival!

Today is a beautiful day but also important one: culture as national holiday.

Festival Seviq Brežice is one of the creators of culture and to be mentioned again at the last session of the Committee on Culture of National Assembly was strong impulse. Yesterday Seviq Brežice received congratulations from Kathrin Deventer, Secretary General of the European Festivals Association for receiving EFFE Label 2019-2020.

Since 1997, when we moved our festival to Brežice, statistics are impressive. 53 municipalities in Slovenia, we performed at 107 venues of cultural heritage and 20 other venues, we performed 738 events: 608 concerts, 1 theater performance, 11 film screenings, 12 promotional activities, 7 exhibitions, 13 educational blocks, 11 art residencies and 6 symposiums and conferences. Outside Slovenia we performed in 4 regions in Croatia and Italy at 15 venues of cultural heritage with 33 concerts as part of Seviq Brežice programme. There were 1808 artists of 52 nationalities, many of them several times, performing with innovative and exciting programmes on our festival. We are very proud of high number of Slovenian artists (206), which are just behind French (208) and Italian (208). We created and have been a part of international projects (Student festival, Euro network, Debut Junger Sängers, PurPur, eeemerging). With several actions and political support we initiated and contributed to renovation of many venues of Slovenian cultural heritage.

For this special holiday please read a thought of European Commissioner for Culture, Mr. Tibor Navracsics: "Festivals are vehicles for the diversity of cultural expressions, for integration and social cohesion. They help to keep communities together, transmitting values, refreshing traditions and acting as vectors for informal education. By doing all that, festivals help to build a sustainable future in a diverse society."

To celebrate culture not only on February 8th, but throughout the year and to meet you all again on unforgettable Seviq Brežice concerts I would like to wish you all the best.
